

Tuesday, Nov. 17 - 7PM
Live Online

Michael Reichert, Ph.D.

How to Raise a Boy: The Power of Connection to Build Good Men

Dr. Michael Reichert joins us virtually from the Philadelphia area to discuss insights from his research and experience on raising boys.

Challenging conventional ideas of how boys learn and grow, Dr. Reichert's research underscores the importance of a relational approach in raising and educating boys to nurture their strength and resilience. Offering a timely consideration of how boyhood has undergone an historic shift, Dr. Reichert will focus on helping parents, teachers, and boys themselves adapt, especially as we face today's unprecedented challenges.

Dr. Reichert will also comment on our current situation with distance learning and its impact on boys.

Audience: Parents, teachers, coaches, mentors of boys and teens

Admission: Free

Register: <https://mvla2020-21-michaelreichert.eventbrite.com>

Books: <https://www.booksinc.net/book/9780593189085>

About Our Speaker

Michael Reichert, Ph.D., is a clinical and research psychologist who has worked with children in a variety of contexts for over 30 years. He has conducted extensive research globally on boys and has presented on related topics around the world. Currently, he serves as Executive Director of the Center for the Study of Boys' and Girls' Lives, a research center based at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Reichert has written four books including, most recently, How to Raise a Boy: The Power of Connection to Build Good Men.

 Books Inc.
The World's Oldest Independent Bookstore

Admission is free,
thanks to our generous sponsors!

